

Schedule 1: English Language Minimum Proficiency Measures.

The University generally applies four standard language criteria to courses as below. The bands (A to D) are benchmarked against the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) academic test scores. General test scores cannot be used to meet the English language requirements for any La Trobe course.

BAND A	IELTS Overall 6.0, no band less than 6.0
BAND B	IELTS Overall 6.5, no band less than 6.0
BAND C	IELTS Overall 7.0, no band less than 6.5
BAND D	IELTS Overall 7.5, no band less than 7.0

Undergraduate coursework: Are all Band A, unless otherwise specified (refer to La Trobe website)

Postgraduate coursework: Are all Band B, unless otherwise specified (refer to La Trobe website)

Graduate research: Are all Band B, unless otherwise specified (refer to La Trobe website)

Disciplines within a graduate research course may also require different levels of English language proficiency. Applicants should refer to the Graduate Research School website for specific disciplinary requirements.

Note that courses at the same level may require different levels of English language proficiency, applicants should refer to the relevant Course Finder pages for specific course requirements.

APPROVED ENGLISH LANGUAGE COUNTRIES (Table 1.3)

The countries listed below are recognised as countries where English is a first language and where secondary schooling and tertiary studies are taught and assessed entirely in English. Applicants who have completed secondary schooling and/or post-secondary studies in a country listed below would be deemed to have met all bands of English levels as set out by this schedule.

Antigua & Barbuda	Australia	Bahamas	Belize	Botswana	Barbados	Canada (excluding Quebec)	Cook Islands	Dominica	Fiji
Falkland Islands	Gibraltar	Guyana	Gambia	Ghana	Grenada	Jamaica	Kenya	Kiribati	Lesotho
Mauritius	Malawi	Namibia	New Zealand	Nigeria	Philippines	Republic of Ireland	Seychelles	Swaziland
Sierra Leone	Singapore	Solomon Islands	South Africa	St Kitts and Nevis	St Lucia	Papua New Guinea	Tanzania	Tonga	Trinidad and Tobago
Uganda	Vanuatu	United States of America (including any territories that are managed by USA)	Zambia	Zimbabwe	United Kingdom (including Northern Ireland, Scotland, Wales and other territories that are managed by the UK)

Where an applicant has completed Secondary and/or post-secondary studies at an institution within a non-English speaking country, but where English is the language of instruction and assessment for the whole institution, completed no more than 5 years prior to the commencement of the course at La Trobe, the qualification will be considered to meet English language proficiency. This includes where the program is delivered and administered by an institution from Australia, United Kingdom, United States of America, Canada or New Zealand. Applicants will be required to provide a verifiable letter as evidence to support these studies.

CITIZENS AND RESIDENTS

Citizens and passport holders from the following countries who have achieved equivalent to Australian Year 12 and/or the post-secondary studies set out in Table 1.1 and 1.2 will be deemed to have met English language requirements.

- Australia
- United States of America
- United Kingdom
- Republic of Ireland
- Canada
- New Zealand

There is no time limit on these qualifications unless applicants have been living in a non-English speaking country for the past five years consecutively prior to commencing the course at La Trobe.

EMPLOYMENT AND RESIDENCY

Applicants can demonstrate English language proficiency based on residency and no less than two years of full-time work experience in a country indicated Table 1.3. This employment must have concluded no more than five years prior to the commencement of the course at La Trobe.

Applicants seeking to demonstrate English language proficiency based on residency and employment in an English-speaking country must provide:

- Evidence of ongoing residency (such as passport or visa documentation)
- A statement of service from the employer confirming the duration of employment and duties

Applicants seeking to demonstrate English language proficiency based on residency and employment in a non-English speaking country may be considered, however, must provide a statement from the employer confirming that work has been conducted in an English-speaking environment.

A domestic undergraduate, postgraduate coursework or non-award applicant who wishes to be considered based on employment and who does not meet the above criteria will be referred to the Special Tertiary Admissions Test (STAT). Graduate research applicants will need to submit a written case endorsed by their prospective supervisor to the Pro Vice-Chancellor (Global & Graduate Research).

STUDY ABROAD AND NON-AWARD

Where Exchange or Study Abroad applicants choose a combination of both undergraduate and postgraduate units, the English language proficiency for the highest English requirement will be applied.

Applicants can meet the English language requirements of an Undergraduate or Postgraduate non-award program by completing a full year (60 ECTS equivalent) in an undergraduate or postgraduate course where English is the language of instruction in their home institution.

All applicants will be assessed based on the Formal English language tests as per Table 1.0, Table 1.2 and Table 1.3
