Section 5 - Policy Statement

(6) The purpose of a probationary period is to ensure an appropriate match is made between the person, the job and the work environment. It serves as an opportunity for both La Trobe and the new staff member to confirm whether the staff member satisfies the goals and objectives of the position.

(7) Probation provides an opportunity to evaluate the staff member's suitability in terms of:

- a. Job fit – are the performance standards and expectations of the role being met?
- b. Behaviour – is behaviour appropriate and aligned to La Trobe's policy and procedures?
- c. Cultural fit – readiness to adapt to the attitudes, cultural qualities and values within the Team and La Trobe.

(8) These procedures can be used during the probation period to address performance or conduct concerns. As per subclause 20.5 of the EA, clauses 67 (Misconduct and Serious Misconduct), 68 (Breaches of the Research Code), and 69 (Unsatisfactory Performance) of the EA, do not apply to staff members during their probation period. It is important, however, that appropriate probationary procedures are followed to ensure a fair and equitable process.

(9) All new Academic staff appointed to a continuing or fixed-term position will normally be required to serve a period of probation.
